Voluntary recall due to an undeclared sesame allergen on labeling.
This voluntary recall only affects those with a sesame allergen or sensitivity.

Orgain is initiating a voluntarily recall of a limited production run of its Organic Protein & Superfoods Powder - Creamy Chocolate Fudge with Probiotics after they discovered that product containing sesame, an allergen, was distributed with packaging labels that did not list sesame as an ingredient. No incidents have been reported due to this matter and the potential risk is limited only to consumers with a sesame allergy or sensitivity. However, out of an abundance of caution, we are initiating this voluntary recall as consumer safety is our first priority.
